Intensive Outpatient Addiction Treatment Options

Many clients share that the limiting factor for participating in treatment is the inpatient setting; the fear of losing their job, concerns about who will care for their children or pets, the fear of judgment from others, and the fear of being alone prevent them from enrolling in a program. By offering effective drug and alcohol treatment in an outpatient setting with day and evening hours, we can alleviate these fears for patients and make rehabilitation attainable for anyone who is ready.

Renaissance Recovery Center combines clinical treatment with a spiritual perspective to create a treatment plan that addresses the client's mental, physical, emotional, and spiritual needs which increase overall program success for participants. We offer treatment for dual diagnosis treatment for co-occurring disorders. We provide services with these key goals for the client:

- Achieve sobriety and maintain indefinitely
- Grow personally and heal from the past
- Achieve improved quality of life
- Function at the highest level upon completion

We achieve this through expert and compassionate drug and alcohol treatment aimed at treating the whole person and their support network that is strategically designed according to clinical evidence and individual patient needs. Almost every addiction is accompanied by an underlying driver; we address those underlying causes to create recovery that lasts beyond our treatment center doors.

We offer free no-obligation consultations to help you determine whether our drug and alcohol treatment center offers everything you need in a way that accommodates your personal and professional obligations.
