At the Renaissance Recovery Center, we are a Faith-based Arizona drug rehabilitation center that provides inpatient and outpatient programs to help heal everyday people and families. We are prepared to help with interventions and help an afflicted loved one get on the road to recovery. We also offer long-term Fellowship and an emphasis on Gospel-center integrity that includes the following.

Personal Integrity: We help people rebuild their internal honesty and open-mindedness. By practicing these aspects of their character, they can gain a willingness to recovery and stay in remission.

Group Integrity: Denial and self-deception are methods addicts use to avoid responsibility and reality. Group therapy discussions allow users to see the impact addiction has on others and helps them look squarely in the mirror.

Staff Integrity: The professionals at Renaissance Recovery Center hold themselves to the highest standards of Faith-based principles and enduring sobriety. Our deeply personal understanding of addiction provides a unique window into our client's experience and desire to force this illness into remission.

Programs and Service

Intensive Outpatient Substance Abuse Treatment

This 90-day strategic outpatient program brings together group sessions, one-on-one treatment and family counseling that helps addicts on multiple levels. The program runs three nights each week and focuses on small groups and highly personalized environments. In many ways, recovery is a path that the afflicted needs help to walk. We work with good people to help them choose sobriety.

Aftercare

This weekly groups session provides support and treatment for our clients' ongoing sobriety. Meeting once per week reinforces the commitment to a clean life and helps to hone and develop skills. Long-term treatment is proven to improve lasting sobriety. This program runs for 90 days.

Alumni Group: Ongoing

We provide an ongoing weekly group session for alumni and recent clients because recovery often requires strong ties to others. The fellowship is a key factor for individual sobriety.

Opiate Dependence Support Group: Ongoing

Opiate addiction has grown to epidemic proportions and forcing this dependency into remission requires detoxification. These drugs claim the physical, emotional and psychological health of community members. This powerful addiction requires effective ongoing treatments. We provide Gospel-centered and Faith-based solutions, SMART Recovery, 12 Steps and a wide range of proven approaches to treatment and support.

Family Program

Addicts do not suffer alone. Their dependency has a devastating impact on loved ones. Entire families are under siege when one of their own falls prey to addiction. No economic or social stature in the community can exempt people from suffering addiction. No one can hide or mask the turmoil and declining health of a clan besieged by addiction. Feelings of guilt, shame and fear detract from the warm love families deserve. The Renaissance Recovery Center offers drug rehabilitation programs designed to help heal family bonds through Gospel principles and the understanding that family love is part of God's plan for us.

Interventions & Assessments

People who struggle with addiction find ways to trick themselves into thinking they do not have a problem. It's generally called denial. Through professional and family support, we can assist families to break down that barrier and get that afflicted loved one the help they truly need. A well-planned intervention and treatment plan can be a turning point for loving families. Our trained professionals will assess the issues and help facilitate an intervention. Emotions can run high during these life-changing moments and it's imperative to work with an intervention specialist.

Mental Health And Dual Diagnosis

The struggles of people that suffer dependency and addiction simultaneously are incredibly challenging. An estimated 8 million people fall into his Dual Diagnosis category. Treating both conditions at the same time has proven to be highly successful. The Renaissance Recovery Center has the staff members and skills to treat people dealing with mental illness and addiction. We utilize options such as cognitive behavioral therapy, depression management, one-on-one therapies. We also provide referrals for medical treatments when appropriate.
