When to Consider Drug or Alcohol Rehabilitation

When is the right time to think about going to an alcohol or drug rehabilitation center AZ ? If you have been dealing with an addiction to heroin, cocaine or other drugs or an addiction to alcohol, being in a professional treatment center offers you a way to recover and enjoy a healthier lifestyle. Whether you have a mild or severe addiction, trying to overcome it on your own can be incredibly difficult. With the support and other care from professionals, you can overcome your addiction to alcohol or drugs in a healthy and safe manner.

Types of Alcohol and Drug Addiction Treatment Programs

There are different types of treatment programs for drug and alcohol addiction. Some of these include the following:

- Detox programs: These programs help you cope when you're going through alcohol or drug withdrawal, which can cause symptoms that are severe for some people.
- Outpatient programs: Outpatient programs include therapy, which usually takes place in a group setting. You only go to your drug or alcohol rehabilitation center for therapy sessions as often as you need.
- Medication-assisted treatment programs: These programs provide treatment for alcohol or opioid addictions, which includes taking medication for your cravings and withdrawal symptoms and doing therapy sessions.
- Dual diagnosis programs: These programs offer treatment to help you recover from addiction and manage a mental health disorder.

We offer a personalized and enhanced recovery experience since our drug and alcohol treatment program usually involves both clinical; driven methods and the faith-based 12 principles to promote long-term wellness. Our Tempe, Arizona treatment facility offers the following options:

90-Day Intensive Outpatient Treatment

Our outpatient program is 3 nights a week, 90 days in length. This includes at least 1 one-on-one counseling session each week, as well as family counseling. We have master-level therapists with years of extensive experience treating those suffering from addiction and mental issues. We also have smaller group sessions that create a more intimate setting.

60-Day Aftercare Program

We also offer a 60-day aftercare program that consists of at least one group session each week where several issues that are linked to long-term sobriety are candidly addressed. This is a critical step since we ensure continued support of all our patients to make the recovery journey a success.

Customized Recovery Programs

Not everyone is the same. For the most successful recovery, we ensure that everyone's treatment plan is customized to meet their specific needs. We provide many different services to help those struggling with addiction. Our programs and approach include the following:
